

London Accommodation Sites

www.ukpropertyshop.co.uk/ has a searchable database of property to rent and buy. Property in London is expensive. London has 6 travel zones, with zone 1 being the most central and generally speaking the closer to zone 1 the property is situated the more expensive it will be. Other factors, for example proximity to transport links and how fashionable an area is also impacts upon price.
